

Linen Wrappings

John 20:1-10

On the first day of the week,

Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark,
and sees the stone taken away from the tomb.

So she runs and comes to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved and says to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb,
and we do not know where they have laid him.”

Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb.

The two were running together.

But the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first,
and bending down to look in he saw the linen wrappings lying there,
but he did not go in.

Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb

and he sees the linen wrappings lying there,
and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head,
not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Then the other disciple also went in who had reached the tomb first and he saw and believed.

For as yet they did not understand the scripture,
that he must rise from the dead.

Then the disciples again returned to their homes.
